

STUDY GUIDE

Issue of March 7, 2010

HOMELESS

Page 1

1. According to Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta, what also lies at the heart of poverty?
2. How does this group of ministers see those in nursing homes as homeless?
3. What do the ministers try to bring to the people they serve?
4. According to studies, how many Americans have lost their homes due to the recession?
5. Rick Richards volunteers at a local homeless shelter. In his experience, what do some men resort to in order to find shelter and food?
6. What do both ministries try to provide? Why do you think this is important?
7. In what ways might some of your peers be homeless? What can your class do to help them feel a sense of belonging?

CANADIANS

Page 3

1. In this article, who was called a "humble man and a visionary?" What is a visionary?
2. Brother Andre Bessette was the founder of...
3. How many people visit this location every year?
4. What is Maison Andre-Bessette?
5. What are the five major values Brother Bessette lived by? Discuss how these values can relate to your lives.

CHAPLAIN

Page 11

1. What is Father James Stump's ministry?
2. What is the primary purpose of his ministry?
3. How does this priest show the face of Christ to those he serves?
4. What was Father Stump's previous profession?
5. Why did he decide to become a priest?
6. What does he call his ministry?

TOURNEY

Page 17

1. What is the Clericus Cup and where is it played?
2. What made the victory of the U.S. team even sweeter?
3. What does this event challenge players to do?
4. What is the great lesson, according to seminarian Victor Ingalls?
5. What lesson can we learn about putting sports into a proper perspective?

KIDS' PAGE

1. To what order did St. John of the Cross belong?
2. What is Laetare Sunday? What color vestments does the priest wear on this day?
3. What promise did Jesus make to those who have faith? (Solve the puzzle)
4. How and why did ancient Christians use precious stones to honor Jesus?
5. How does legend tell us the Blessed Mother knew she should marry St. Joseph?